Dipwood Road, Rowlands Gill NE39 1DB

Offers Over £650,000

Signature North East welcomes you to this five-bedroom detached home, a 1960s mid-century masterpiece inspired by the designs of Frank Lloyd Wright. This one-of-a-kind property retains many original features that are rarely found today. Nestled in a peaceful and secluded area of Rowlands Gill, this remarkable home is surrounded by natural beauty, with abundant green spaces and woodlands close by. Despite its rural tranquillity, the property remains well connected, offering easy access to local schools, amenities, and transport links. Nearby attractions include the stunning Gibside National Trust estate and the River Derwent. The property also boasts unique architectural highlights including stone cladding, wooden panelled ceilings, and balconies.

Stepping through the entrance hall, you are greeted by a stylish kitchen and dining area that perfectly blends modern finishes with the home's mid-century charm. The kitchen showcases an elegant, in-contemporary design, fitted with attractive solid and base units, complemented by sleek overheads and a practical dining island. An enlaided over with built-in features, a central island, and a breakfast bar, the kitchen itself features high-quality integrated appliances. A convenient utility room adjoins the kitchen, while the open dining area offers an ideal space for family gatherings and entertaining guests. From here, doors externally to this spacious balcony with scenic woodland views. The ground floor also features a study with garden outlooks, a practical store room, a garden room, and a couple of balconies. Ascending to the first floor, you'll find the main living space, a large open-plan living area with a fireplace, a wood-paneled ceiling, and a fireplace. Large windows flood the space with natural light, connecting the interior with its lush surroundings. A charming garden room, surrounded by windows, completes this tranquil level, offering an immersive connection with nature.
